1. On 11 July 1951, there was no flying at Reinsdorf airfield except for the landing of six ground attack aircraft. Aircraft were parked at the field as previously observed. * About 8 to 10 temporary buildings and 25 gray tents were located on the northern edge of the field. Ten empty splinter-proof revetments for trucks or equipment were seen there. [REDACTED] left the field. It was seen later being parked in front of the cooperative bakery.
2. At 10:25 a.m. on 18 July, 40 single-engine low-wing monoplanes took off in four rows of ten planes each. Additional formation take-offs were made by 7 planes at 10:30 a.m., 10 planes shortly afterwards, 4 planes at 10:33 a.m., 8 planes at 10:35 a.m., and 6 planes at 10:40 a.m. Seven aircraft took off individually between 10:40 and 10:50 a.m. Five aircraft were still parked on the field at 10:50 a.m. [REDACTED] were seen at the field and [REDACTED] in the village near the farmyard.
2. At 7:15 a.m. on 24 July, four tank cars with the inscription "3,000 HL" were parked on the spur track at Justorbog railroad station. Fuel was being transferred from the tank cars into the [REDACTED]. This continued until 25 July. On 25 July, source observed the entire convoy of tank trucks underway as it left Reinsdorf airfield.
4. On 24 July, 25 round tents were counted in the northeastern corner of the field. Motor vehicles seen there included [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]. The occupation of the field by ground attack aircraft seemed to be unchanged. Six single-engine high-wing monoplanes with round wing tips were additionally parked at the field.
5. On 31 July, [REDACTED] went toward Reinsdorf. [REDACTED] were seen at the field.  Three IL-10 ground attack planes landed at the field. Shortly afterwards, three squadrons of nine planes each were seen landing and, 10 minutes later, five additional squadrons came in for landing. Within a short time, a total of 75 ground attack aircraft landed at the field. ***

Comment, Reinsdorf airfield is occupied by a ground attack regiment equipped with about IL-10s. The aircraft are parked on the northern edge of the field. See [REDACTED]

  Comment. Source has recently observed more aircraft at the field than are assigned to the ground attack regiment. It is possible that the surplus number of planes were stationed at the field only temporarily. See Comment to
